

Small Mammals

Small mammals should not be skinned. Do not gut the animal. Small mammals will spoil quickly because of their thin hide and bacteria. Wash off any excess blood out of the fur and pat dry with a towel. If you can't take the animal immediately to a taxidermist, put it in a plastic bag and freeze it.